8. Intelligence Officer 46th Fighter Interceptor Squadron.

All personnel positively identified this object as a balloon of the type used in meteorological observations. I see no reason to doubt this identification.

11. Rogers and Lt. Stubbler observed object from 35,000 feet and it was above them. Capt. Payne observed it from 47,000 ft and it was above him also. All three pilots positively identified the object as a balloon.
