La Crosse, Wis.
Mar. 31, 1966.

This is to describe what I saw the night of March 29, 1966.
Between 2 and 3 o'clock in a northwest direction over the city.

Yellow like the moon - but much larger than any moon I ever saw. The next day, I told no one but my neighbor described the same, she had seen 2 nights
so I know I saw it.
