The object had a yellowish inside area changing to a reddish hue on the edges. No exhaust or vapor trail was noted. It looked like it might have been shot out of something. It made the observer think of a bullet because it was the fastest thing the witness had ever seen. No flames were seen but the object looked like it was red hot, like hot coals in a furnace. Observer has seen other quite different things in the past few months.

perform the ceremony, balked at an illegal ceremony.

But then the judge signed the waiver, commenting that "with 18 cases on my regular docket today I wouldn't have been able to sign that order if you had come after 10 o'clock."

It was that close.

There's one footnote—Cokie argued her own case. Brother Tom isn't a member of the Maryland Bar.

Mrs. Dixon Predicts

By JEAN POWELL
Star Staff Writer

In a candle-lighted room of the Georgetown Inn yesterday, Washington (prophetess) Jean Dixon could have been the central figure in a Greek tragedy.

She addressed wives of the Federal Bar Association, meeting in convention here this week.

In fact, she compared her plight with mythological Cassandra, the seeress who was given the powers of prophecy.

'Like Cassandra'

When Apollo turned against Cassandra, she was not divested of her gift, but it was ordained that no one would believe her.

Mrs. Dixon, who says she foresaw President Kennedy's assassination and vainly tried to prevent his Texas trip, has had a strong vision since the beginning of July.

"I have felt there is an object orbiting the earth in a path of a blue belt... with the initials... M I R V..." Mrs. Dixon revealed.

"There may be letters in between, but I have not seen them. This object is of Russian origin. It appears to me like the front of a submarine which possesses torpedo-like tubes, and can fire atomic missiles.

"Each one of these girls has a different brain, and is capable of going to different tarts."

Other predictions included her assurance that we will have bigger wars than Viet Nam, which she described as a "little bonfire compared to future combats, and the increase of sabotage of privately owned U.S. industry all over the world.

Part of Mrs. Dixon's speech was almost devotional in quality. "I believe with all my heart that there is a purpose to all life, and the Lord has devised a grand plan with places for each one of us to occupy."

"I am convinced that it is our responsibility to develop our talents and skills and fulfill our purpose in life."

In Demand

Mrs. Dixon, who has been much in demand as a speaker since she broke into the news as a prophetess, has a future meeting with Dr. Rhine, the extrasensory perception expert at Duke University, Durham, N. C.

Ninety wives of members of the Federal Bar and their guests gave Mrs. Dixon their undivided attention.

The limited accommodations of the restaurant were not commodious enough to seat all comers.

A hostess with the wives' group said that numbers of women were turned away because of lack of space.

Following her speech the women came forward with papers and copies of Ruth Montgomery's biography of Mrs. Dixon to be autographed.

Submarine Shaped UFO reported

By VIRGINIA BROAD BECK

An unidentified flying object, (UFO), recently prophesied by Jeanne Dixon is claimed to have been seen two years ago by a Silver Spring woman.

Mrs. Florence D. Hanson, of 308 Franklin Place, said she had seen a "submarine-shaped" unidentified flying object on Sept. 26, 1964. It seemed to match the description of a flying object Jeanne Dixon said she had seen.

Mrs. Dixon's visionary UFO, mentioned in her book, "A Gift of Prophecy," was supposedly a missile carrier of Russian origin.

Believing there was a connection between the two objects, Mrs. Hanson wrote to Mrs. Dixon, but she said she has not yet received a reply.

Of her own UFO sighting, Mrs. Hanson commented, "I'll never forget it.

"The object came out of the sky with a 'swishing' sound, she said, and flew about 400 feet high at a distance of 300 feet from where I was standing."

There were three distinct lights on the side of the UFO, Mrs. Hanson continued, and sparks were emitted from the tail with a sizzling sound. The object had no wings and no wheels, she said, and resembled the front of a submarine or a spark plug.

"It actually shook the earth when it passed over," she insisted. "I became really frightened.

In addition to the flying submarine, Mrs. Hanson said she had spotted two other UFO's.

The first sighting, she remarked, occurred eight years ago when she and her husband saw a broad beam of light following a definite course in the sky.

The most recent sighting happened about three weeks ago. Viewing the object from the ground, she said, it was about the size of a golf ball and followed a zig-zag course through the sky. Lights on the ball illuminated it. A fine line trailed from the back of the object like exhaust fumes, Mrs. Hanson said.

Mrs. Hanson has many theories about UFO's, and in her letter to Jeanne Dixon she mentioned several of them.

"There are several atomic reactors in the Washington area," she commented, "and I wonder if there is any connection between the reactors and the large number of UFO sightings in this area."

"I would like to know," Mrs. Hanson continued, "if any students have seen or are interested in UFO's."

"I often wonder," Mrs. Hanson said, "if some people are chosen to see these objects. Not everyone can see them."
