35. Information which you feel pertinent and which is not adequately covered in the specific points of the questionnaire or a narrative explanation of your sighting.

Although I completed this Dec. 3, I had everything written down the day after the sighting.

I'd like again to state that all I can say is it looked like a planet I doubt if it was. 1. it was too low

2. it was too large

3. Venus was only visible at that night

If it was an airplane's light, where's another light? Also, how did it move so slowly?
Even though this is a small sighting, I thought I should report it. Also, thanks for the material. Please let me know what
